

The University of Birmingham, Guild of Students is a charity and the students' union for more than 36,000 students. We represent our members to the University and other organisations on the issues that matter to students most. We also exist to help students develop skills outside of study, have fun, meet people and make sure their time at Birmingham is special.

Graphic Design Coordinator

£ 23,356 pro rata £18,684 per annum, Part Time - 4 days per week

The Guild is looking to recruit a dynamic graphic designer to become a part of the Communications & Marketing department.

Responsible for the development and creation of all design activity across a range of media including print and online, you will work to further the Guild's brand and ensure that brand identity and guidelines are maintained throughout the organisation.

You will support the development of marketing and communications campaigns and activities in the creation of artwork which will engage our members - working with a range of stakeholders, including internal and external customers, and suppliers.

You will have previous experience and relevant skills training, and a thorough knowledge of the creative process. You will be able to work on a range of projects simultaneously, and to multiple deadlines.

Experience of digital content, video and animation production would be an advantage.

Closing date for applications: Thursday 20th September 2018 at 9am
