4. NUS Conference Update	JM introduced the discussion about NUS National Conference. Following events that happened at this year's conference, a number of ideas have been put forward relating to the Guild's disaffiliation from the NUS. In light of this, it is proposed that the Guild will hold a referendum in term 1 of the next academic year – if the idea is quorate and passes.	Noted

	The group agreed that a Referendum in term 1 would be fairer, as it would be handled by the new Officer Team
5. Vegan Fries in Joes Bar	EK has been asked by a student about the truly vegan nature of the fries and potato wedges served in Joe's Bar. There was concern that they are cooked in the same areas as other meat products. DL said that she was not sure on the facts in this instance, but would clarify with venues and report back.	DL to chase.
6. AOB	JM reminded the group that the final Officer Question Time of the year will be held on Thursday 19 th May in Guild Council Chambers.
